

Tark Toy Drive Press Release

April 21, 2016

“Tark Toy Drive” Collects Hundreds of Toys

Jerry Tarkanian, Jr.'s Family delivers hundreds of toys to Valley Children's Hospital. The “Tark Toy Drive” is a Las Vegas, Nevada nonprofit organization formed on behalf of Jerry Tarkanian, Jr. who survived an ischemic stroke with the care that he received at Children’s Hospital of Nevada at UMC.

Both Jerry, Jr. and his grandfather the late Fresno State Men's Basketball Coach and Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Inductee, Jerry Tarkanian, Sr. suffered strokes. This drive was launched to raise awareness of strokes for patients of all ages. To learn more about the signs and symptoms of a stroke, they've recently launched the tarktoydrive.com website.

The Tarkanian family will be passing out toys to the children who are recovering and receiving care at Valley Children's Hospital.

When: Friday, April 22nd
Passing out toys will begin at 2:30
Where: Valley Children's Hospital
9300 Valley Children's Place
Madera, CA 93636-8762

For more details, or to set up interviews, please call
Media Relations: Zara Arboleda 559-353-7049
Foundation Contact: Bethany Sowell 559-960-2482